Re Chicago teletype to Director, this date.

On 7/16/63 GRANVILLE REED, Program Assistant, Chicago Branch, NAACP, 431 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois, telephonically advised that the NAACP had received a postcard threatening the life of ROY WILKENS.

REED was interviewed on 7/16/63 and made available a pre-stamped postcard. The post mark on this postcard is cut off, however, it appears to have been post marked 7/15/63. The card is handwritten and is addressed to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, 431 South Dearborn, Chicago, Illinois. The card reads as follows: "ATTENTION! All N.A.A.C.P. Members! If your head, Roy Wilkens, wants to live beyond Sat. 7/20 he had better leave the country. I warn you I make no empty threats! K. P."

Although this card has been handled by a number of people and by the NAACP Office, the Lab is requested to examine this card for any latent fingerprints and also search the card through the appropriate files to determine if there is any similar correspondence coming to the attention of the Bureau. The Lab is requested to handle this expeditiously in order that the report may be included in the 10-day closing report.

Re Chicago teletype 7/16/63 and Bureau telephone call to New York 7/17/63.

Information of Chicago, in referenced telephone call New York was instructed to immediately locate Wilkins and advise him of threat. In event Wilkins remains away from New York, appropriate local authorities covering his present location should also be advised. When Wilkins is located, he should be interviewed to determine if he has any suspects in this matter or knows who might use the initials "K.P."

From a review of information submitted to date, it appears that the post card containing this threat was mailed in the Chicago area. If this is true, Chicago should make inquiry with local authorities to determine if they have any knowledge of any person who might use the [illegible] "K.P."

Any logical investigation should be conducted by Chicago and upon receipt of Laboratory examinations requested, Chicago will submit two copies of a closing report. Designate one copy for U. S. Attorney, Chicago. Do not consult U. S. Attorn in this matter as Department reserves the right to make all prosecutive decisions in cases of this type. Interview of Wilkins should be included in Chicago closing report. All phases of this matter should be expedited and Bureau kept advised of all pertinent developments.

THREAT TO LIFE OF ROY WILKINS
NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF COLORED PEOPLE
JULY 16, 1963
RACIAL MATTERS

On July 16, 1963, Mr. Granville Reed, Program Assistant, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), 431 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois, advised the Chicago Division, Federal Bureau of Investigation that he was in receipt on this date of a postal card addressed to the NAACP, 431 South Dearborn, Chicago, Illinois. Mr. Reed stated the card arriving in the morning mail is believed to have been mailed at Chicago, Illinois although the postmark is not thoroughly legible.

On the reverse of the post card is the following message:

"A T T E N T I O N!

All N.A.A.C.P. members!

If your head, Roy Wilkens wants to live beyond Sat. 7/20 he had better leave the country.
I worn you I make no empty threats! K. P."

Reed advised that Roy Wilkins is currently in charge of the NAACP and maintains his residence and office in New York City. He stated that on July 16, 1963, he had been in telephonic contact with Wilkins' office at New York but had determined that Wilkins was not present in the office. Reed stated that he was unable to ascertain Wilkins' whereabouts as of the time of that call.

On July 16, 1963, details concerning this matter were furnished to [redacted] Human Relations Section, Chicago Police Department.

80 80

On July 16, 1963, this matter was discussed with Wayne O. Wood, Region I, 113th INTC Group, Chicago, Illinois.

DETAILS: AT CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

On July 16, 1963, GRANVILLE V. REED, Program Assistant, Chicago Branch, NAACP, 431 South Dearborn, telephonically advised that he had received a postcard through the mail. This card threatened the life of ROY WILKINS if he did not leave the country.

FD-302 (Rev. 1-22-60) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date July 25, 1963

GRANVILLE W. REED, Program Assistant, Chicago Branch, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), 421 South Dearborn Street, made available a pre-stamped postcard. This card was addressed to the "National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, 421 S. Dearborn, Chicago, Illinois." The postmark was cut off but appeared to have been mailed on July 15, 1963. This card was handwritten in blue ink and stated "ATTENTION! All N.A.A.C.P. members! If your head, Roy Wilkens, wants to live beyond Sat. 7/20 he had better leave the country. I warn you I make no empty threats!" This card was signed "K.P.".

This card also contained additional printing which read "RECEIVED JUL 16 1963". REED stated that this stamp was placed on the card when it was received in the mail.

REED stated that this card was received in the regular morning mail delivery this date. He stated that several people in the office have handled the card and he also had copies of the card made.

REED could furnish no suspects. He stated that his office has not received any crank letters to his knowledge and he only recalls that approximately one month ago, Reverend CARL A. FUQUA, the Executive Secretary, received a package which contained a dummy bomb. This matter was turned over to the local police. He stated that he also recalls that a number of months ago his office received a crank telephone call but does not recall the contents of this call. b7D

REED stated that he has notified [redacted] about this matter. He was advised that he should notify them if he felt that protection was needed.

On July 17, 1963, [redacted] telephonically advised that he had been assigned the case involving the postcard received by the N.A.A.C.P. He stated that he would contact the Chicago Office of the FBI should he develop any information concerning this card.

By report dated July 19, 1963, the FBI Laboratory advised that the postal card was searched in the Anonymous Letter File with negative results. Also no indented writing was found.

By report dated July 22, 1963, the Latent Fingerprint Section of the Identification Division advised that an examination of the postal card disclosed eight latent fingerprints of value.

FD-36 (Rev. 1-31-63)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 7/19/63

ROY WILKINS, Executive Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), was interviewed at his office, 20 West 40th Street.

He said he had previously been informed by SA [redacted] that a postcard had been received at the office of the NAACP at Chicago, Illinois, which threatened his life. He had in his possession a facsimile of this postal card which had been sent to him by his Chicago office.

He said he had no suspects and did not know who might use the initials K.P.

He was informed that protection could not be afforded him by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). He was told that the nature and contents of the threat had been brought to the attention of the New York City Police Department and that if he desired protection, he should contact that department. He had not contacted the New York City Police Department as of the time of the interview.

Mr. WILKINS said he did not inform his wife of the receipt of the threat as he did not want to unduly alarm her. He said his wife is employed on the staff of the Commissioner of Welfare, City of New York. She is director of Community Relations and is employed in the offices of New York City Department of Welfare, 250 Church Street, on the 14th floor. The telephone number is DI 4-8700, extension 615.

Mr. WILKINS pointed out he had attended a convention of the NAACP in Chicago, and he had left Chicago on July 7, 1963, traveling to Charleston, South Carolina. He had stayed in Charleston, South Carolina, a short time and then traveled by train to New York, arriving at noon, July 8, 1963.

The following description of WILKINS was obtained by observation and interview:

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date August 13, 1963

1

GRANVILLE W. [redacted], III, Program Assistant, Chicago [redacted], National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), 431 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois, advised that the postal card containing the threat [redacted] life of ROY WILKINS, Executive Secretary, NAACP, [redacted] City, was received in that organization's Chicago [redacted] on July 16, 1963. The card was contained in a [redacted] other mail for their office, and, as such, was not [redacted] separately by NAACP personnel.

To the best of his knowledge, Mr. [redacted] stated, no one other than himself at the NAACP office handled the card. Following its receipt he took the card to the firm of Excis Equipment Company, located in that same building, where he requested [redacted] of that firm to make several photostat copies of the card. Mr. [redacted] stated that he does not know if persons other than [redacted] handled the card, but would attempt to secure [redacted] information as soon as possible. He noted that [redacted] is currently on vacation and should return to the Chicago area during the week August 12-16, 1963.

Mr. [redacted] advised that he recalls having been fingerprinted on several occasions, but his only specific recollection is at the time he served with the National Guard in the State of Michigan. He stated that in 1956 he served on active duty with the National Guard at Ft. Leonard Wood, Missouri, [redacted] He stated that he was born January 5, 1938, at Leavenworth, Kansas.
